

Smurfit Kappa Avala Ada is the No. 1 company in production of corrugated and folding boxes in Europe. To continue that success we constantly recruit the brightest and experienced professionals. The future of our company is shaped by those we recruit, which is why we believe that the key question is not where we will take you, but where YOU will take us. If you are motivated, enthusiastic, creative and willing to learn we are ready to meet you!

MAINTENANCE ENGINEER

Key responsibilities:

- Active participation in developing maintenance plans
- Monitoring the energy efficiency of production process and proposing suggestions for improvement
- Production parameters and norms monitoring
- Organization of daily maintenance activities
- Supervision of machines and devices
- Researching and determining the causes of different types of deviations in production process and proposing suggestions to eliminate them
- Technical documentation updating
- Participation in investments and projects planning
- Issuance of procurement orders in accordance with the operational cost plan
- Ensuring proper performance of equipment and devices

Skills and experience required for the role:

- Bachelor's degree in appropriate field of study (Electrical or Mechanical engineering)
- Fluent in English
- Strong computer skills (MS Office, SAP) and comfort with new technologies
- Developed analytical skills
- Organised, able to prioritise and meet deadlines
- Willingness and capacity to learn
- Prior experience not required

What we offer:

- Chance to work with outstanding team of people
- Friendly and supportive environment
- Opportunity to learn and develop your skills in dynamic environment
- Opportunity for advancement

Smurfit Kappa

- Additional bonuses
- Private health insurance